

Enhance Your Legal Education with Business Knowledge

Learn about Our Partnership with the Kogod School of Business

No matter what industry you work in, developing a combination of business skills and legal knowledge empowers you to drive effective, law-abiding strategy with confidence.

Because we understand the importance of the relationship between the law and business, the Washington College of Law has formed a unique partnership with the Kogod School of Business. As an online Master of Legal Studies (MLS) student, you will be able to supplement your legal education by choosing three cross-college elective courses from Kogod.

Get to Know Kogod

The Kogod School of Business is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International). AACSB accreditation is known worldwide as the longest-standing, most recognized form of specialized and professional accreditation an institution and its business programs can earn.

Kogod is the oldest accredited business school in Washington, DC, and has continued to uphold its reputation in the area and worldwide. Throughout the program and long after graduation, you will form connections with both the Washington College of Law and the Kogod School of Business global alumni network.

A Curriculum Designed through a Unique Partnership
